THE CUBANS SPEAK

Constitutional Convention Warmly Indorses the Administration.

A GRATEFUL GREETING

Message to President McKinley Expressive of Satisfaction Of His Insular Policy.

Honesty Demonstrated in the Fulfillment of Initial Declaration.

Havana, Nov. 6.—The Cuban constitutional convention met in the Marti theater yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Long before that hour the theater was crowded. Many thousands were unable to gain admittance and the streets in the neighborhood were blocked with people.

Gen. Wood and his staff, accompanied by Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and his staff, received an ovation on entering, the band playing "America."

Senor Cisneros and Gen. Rivera escorted Gen. Wood to the platform and he almost immediately opened the convention.

"As military governor of the island of Cuba and representing the president of the United States," said he, "I call this convention to order. It will be your duty first of all to frame and adopt a constitution for Cuba and, when that has been done, to formulate what, in your opinion, ought to be the relations between Cuba and the United States."

"The constitution must be adequate to secure stable, orderly and free government. When you have formulated the relations which, in your opinion ought to exist between Cuba and the United States, the government will doubtless take such action on its part as shall lead to a final and authoritative agreement between the people of the two countries to the promotion of their common interests."

Before withdrawing Gen. Wood wished the delegates a speedy and successful conclusion of their work.
He said that Chief Justice Perez would administer the form of oath which the delegates might select and he concluded by appointing Senor Figueroa, under secretary of state and government, as temporary chairman.

The convention organized with Senor Llorente, justice of the supreme court, as president, and Senor Villuenda as secretary. All of the 31 delegates were present.

Senor Allemen who said that the convention was "only a continuation of the fight for independence," moved that the regulations governing the old Cuban assembly at Yaya in 1890 be adopted. As nobody seemed familiar with them, the convention adjourned until today at 2 p. m., when copies were furnished the delegates.

"HAYANA, Nov. 6.

Adjutant General, Washington:

"Convention opened promptly at 2 o'clock. Immense enthusiasm and cheering for the United States. Absolutely harmonious. Every evidence that satisfaction of the people was complete."

"WOOD,

"Military Governor."

Last night Gen. Corbin received the

Life's a Sack Race

To a sick man. He's hobbled, hampered, handicapped by his sickness. Every little while he has to lay off for a day.
He can't get ahead. Everybody passes him in the struggle for success. If sickness originates in a diseased condition of the stomach (and most sickness does) there's a cure for it. Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is not a cure-all, but a medicine specially designed to cure diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures many forms of disease originating in a diseased condition of the stomach and digestive and nutritive system.

"I write to tell you of the great benefit I have received from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. G. B. Bird, of Byrnside, Putnam County, West Va. "It cured me of a very bad case of indigestion associated with torpid liver. Before I began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I had no appetite, could not sleep or work very little. The little that I ate did not agree with me; bowels constipated, and life was a misery to me. I wrote to Dr. Pierce, giving the symptoms, and asked for advice. You advised me to try the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' so I began the use of it, and after taking four bottles felt so well that I went to work, but soon grew worse, so I again began the use of it, and used it about eight weeks longer, when I was permanently cured. I took in all about twelve bottles of the 'Discovery,' and some of Dr.
Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in connection with the 'Discovery.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels in healthy action.

following additional dispatch from Gen. Wood:

"The following resolutions signed by a majority of delegates as seconded were presented to the temporary president of the convention just at adjourning and doubtless will be passed next session. The undersigned delegates propose that the assembly adopt the following resolutions:

1. That a committee of the assembly proceed immediately to call on Gen. Wood and manifest the satisfaction with which the delegates have seen him carry out the delicate mission entrusted to him.
2. That the same committee request Gen.
Wood to telegraph to the president of the United States as follows:

"The delegates elected to the constitutional convention assembled at their inaugural meeting greet with profound gratitude and affection the president of the United States of North America and they are satisfied with the honesty demonstrated in the fulfillment of the declarations made in favor of liberty and independence of the Cuban people."

Denies the Implication.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.—Prince Khil-koff, Russian minister of railways, declares categorically the assertion of a leading German newspaper that Russia is planning to construct a railway from Samarokand to Hankow via the Kashgar valley, Lake Konkur, or any other route. He asserts that the intervening mountains are all but impassable and that such a line would cost billions of dollars though it possibly may be built 100 years from now."

President Kruger's Illness.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Dispatches from Port Said to the Marseilles evening papers assert that the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, has been obliged to reduce speed considerably, in consequence of the illness of Mr. Kruger. The Gelderland is not expected to reach Marseilles before Nov. 15.

Roberts May Delay.

Durban, Nov. 6.—According to a dispatch from Pietermaritzburg the return of Lord Roberts to England may still be delayed for several weeks.

CARRIED IT ALONG

Forged Note Kept Concealed For

Eight Years.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 6.—William E.
Baugh, treasurer of Tippecanoe county, has discovered that his name has been forged to a promissory note, calling for over $800, and that this note was issued 12 years ago, and was held by a woman outside the state, who received her interest regularly, and was unaware of its spurious character. Recently she had use for the money and came here to collect, and, upon calling on Treasurer Baugh, his spurious character was made public. The name of H. Taylor also appears on the note as an indorser. The woman was unable to find the man who issued the note.

Pastoral Resignations.

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 6.—The Rev. F.
C. Hood, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, formerly of Indianapolis, has tendered his resignation, and he will take charge of the new industrial school at Winona. The Rev. J. Russell Holst of the Episcopal church, has also tendered his resignation as pastor.

A Serious Demonstration.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 6.—Adam White, an aged negro, in drawing a shotgun from beneath his bed to discharge it in honor of the Republican party, caught the trigger on the bed rail and the gun was discharged. The contents tore away White's left side and passed out through the side of the house. White is in a dying condition.

A Veteran Minister.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 6.—Rev. Charles Little, pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city, has been in continuous service for 28 years. He stands third in point of continuous service among 200 members of the Presbyterian synod of Indiana.

Potomac Poisoning.

Dillsboro, Ind., Nov. 6.—Edna, Martha and Hannah Ewing, three little daughters of William J. Ewing, druggist, ate sardines which proved to be impure, and for 24 hours they were alarmingly prostrated, the victims of potomac poisoning.

Won't Stand the Cut.

Valparaiso, Ind., Nov. 6.—The Valparaiso water works company has brought suit against the city to enforce payment under old water rates, the city council having recently reduced the fire hydrant rental from $50 to $10.

Fatal Saloon Fight.

fight last night William Disbennet, a notorious character, fatally stabbed James Andrews, a flint glass worker.
Disbennet is in jail.

Octogenarian's Suicide.

Washington, Ind., Nov. 6.—Henry Giles, aged 81, shot and killed himself at Elkhart, near here, last night. He was suffering an attack of temporary insanity.

Renewing Her Youth.

Rising Sun, Ind., Nov. 6.—Mrs. Elizabeth H. Conway of Rising Sun, is cutting her third set of teeth. She is 72 years old. Her gray hair is also turning to black.

The State Was Defeated.

Waco, Tex., Nov. 6.—The case of the state of Texas against the Waters-Pierce Oil company for penalties for alleged violation of the anti-trust law of 1890 amounting to a total of $100, 000 came to an end yesterday in favor of the Waters-Pierce Oil company.

ELECTION HOPES

Both Sides Awaiting the Returns With Feverish Anxiety.

CONTEST IS ABOUT OVER

Fair Weather General Over the United States Insures Polling Of An Exceptionally Large Vote.

Intense Interest Manifested In Washington Where Unusual Preparations Are Made.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Intense interest in the result of today's election is manifest in Washington. Never before have the preparations for receiving and displaying the election returns been more complete than for tonight.
The newspapers, clubs, stock brokers' offices and private individuals have made elaborate arrangements for obtaining prompt information.

The president and the greater portion of his cabinet are out of the city. Secretary Hay, being a resident of Washington, has no vote and he, with Secretary Gage and a limited number of invited guests will assemble at the Whitehouse to receive the returns.
They also will be in long distance telephone communication with the president and with Republican headquarters in Chicago and New York.
There has been an exceptionally large exodus of government employees to vote. No restrictions have been placed on employees because of party affiliations. Representatives of the Republican and Democratic congressional committees will be on hand at their respective headquarters to receive and tabulate the returns with particular regard to the political complexion of the incoming house of representatives.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The following statement was given out at the headquarters of the Republican national committee:

There are few surface indications at this time dissimilar to those of four years ago when McKinley swept the country by the greatest majority probably ever given to a presidential candidate. The work of the Republicans during the past four weeks has been markedly effective. It has been marked everywhere by the completeness in detail of machinery, haronous action and desired results. In the history of the party no better organization has ever existed. McKinley and Roosevelt will carry every state which voted for McKinley and Hobart four years ago and certainly seven or eight others that voted for Bryan in 1896.

Chairman James K. Jones of the Democratic national committee on the eve of the election said:

I have no doubt that the result of the ballot will be the triumphant election of Bryan and Stevenson. The Democratic party has appealed in this campaign, to the reason and conscience of the people while the Republicans have appealed to the passion and prejudice.

In the great forum of public opinion I have no doubt the Democratic party has won in this, the greatest of its national political struggles. Four years ago the Democratic party was deficient in organization, whereas now it is more perfectly organized and more efficient than it has been in any campaign. The country is now aroused as it has never been before since the great civil war and the result can be nothing less than triumphant election of the national Democratic ticket.

SURFACE INDICATIONS

Reports From Various Sources Show

The Trend of the Ballot.

Idaho—Both parties manifest great confidence.

Mississippi—Democrats claim 50,000 to 60,000 majority.

Maine—About the usual presidential year vote is being cast.

Georgia—There is no doubt as to how Georgia's vote is going.

Maryland—Both political parties progress to be confident of victory.

Kansas—Both sides profess the utmost confidence in the result.

Minnesota—The election of Minnesota McKinley electors seems assured.

South Dakota—Both parties are still stoutly claiming that they will carry the state.

Oregon—The indications are that McKinley will have a plurality of at least 10,000.

Nevada—On the surface the indications are that the result in Nevada will be close.

Washington—Both the Republican and Democratic state committees seem confident of success.

New Hampshire—The Democratic managers concede about what the Republican leaders claim.

North Carolina—The Democrats are confident of victory in all but the Eighth and Ninth districts.

South Carolina—The Democrats have no opposition in South Carolina and the campaign is featureless.

North Dakota—McKinley will carry the state but the Republican state ticket will get a smaller vote.

Wyoming—The Republicans are still sanguine of electing their whole ticket and the Democrats are silent.

Louisiana—The Democrats are confident of a sweeping victory in the state and think the old majority will be maintained.

New Jersey—The Republicans are confident of success but the Democrats claim that if the members of their party who remained away from the polls four years ago all get out today the state will go for Bryan.

Missouri—Conservative figures think that the Democratic national ticket will show a greatly reduced plurality in this state.

Utah—The Republican and Democratic state chairmen have made no changes in their estimates as given some days ago.

Virginia—Bryan is expected to carry Virginia by about 20,000 and the Democrats claim they will elect seven of the 10 congressmen.

Texas—Only ordinary interest is being shown in the election and indications are that a light vote will be polled throughout the state.

Wisconsin—The indications point to Republican success throughout the state. Even the Democratic press concedes the state to McKinley.

Alabama—There is not the least excitement and really but little interest except in the Seventh congressional district which both sides claim.

Kentucky—Both sides claim the state by 20,000, though disinterested estimates do not put the majority either way above 6,000 or 8,000.

Connecticut—Observers who are not intensely partisan predict a safe Mc-Kinley margin and a probable Republican victory of the state ticket.

Delaware—The outlook now is that the Republicans will carry Delaware for McKinley and the state Republican ticket by a majority of at least 1,500.

Florida—From all reports Bryan's majority is expected to be larger than in 1896—20,000—on account of the capital removal question causing a larger registration this year.

Pennsylvania—It is thought that McKinley's vote will be reduced to some extent on account of the fierce contests of the Quay and anti-Quay Republicans to obtain control of the next legislature.

California—The full registered vote is being polled. The chairmen of the Republican and Democratic state committees still insist that their respective parties will carry the state by from 12,000 to 15,000.

Arkansas—The Democratic managers are confident Bryan will carry Arkansas by a majority almost equaling that of 1896 when the figures exceeded 72,000 on a Democratic and Populist fusion ticket.

New York—Generally speaking, Republicans concede that Bryan will carry Greater New York. On the other hand, Democrats admit that Mc-Kinley will carry the state if Greater New York is excluded.

Michigan—Both Mayor William C.
Maybury of Detroit, the Democratic candidate for governor, and Col. Aaron T. Bliss of Saginaw, his Republican opponent, issued signed statements yesterday in which each confidently asserts he will be elected.

Illinois—A full vote is being polled in the state at large and especially in Chicago and Cook county. The fight at Chicago has been of the warmest description and every effort has been made to bring the full voting strength of both parties into the field.

Rhode Island—The Socialist vote, coming principally from workers in the textile manufactures, will show a large increase, and the Republican managers expect to increase their plurality of 22,000 of four years ago.

Nebraska—The Republican state committee is still claiming the state by 5,000 plurality for McKinley, but this is placed against the positive assertion by Chairman Hall of the Democratic committee that Mr. Bryan will receive a plurality of at least 12,000.

London Is Wondering.

London, Nov. 6.—The American election is the chief topic of the day. The dispatches from New York and Washington have been copious, but have dealt with electioneering episodes and vagaries, rather than essential issues of the contest, and the public here has been bewildered and dazed by stories of extraordinary parades, mileage records of the two chief stumpers, balloons in air, female spellbinders on milk white steeds and other evidences of Yankee inventiveness. Sober-minded Englishmen, accustomed to carrying on elections in the same way decade after decade, have read these accounts with wonder and said, "What will these Americans do next?"

The Famous Front Porch.

Canton, O., Nov. 6.—The McKinley lawn, so famous in the campaign of 1896, was last evening the scene of an enthusiastic demonstration similar to that which closed the campaign of four years ago. The president was prevalent upon to depart from his rule, which in the face of so much pressure has been inflexible all through the campaign, and he made a short address to his neighbors and fellow townspeople, free from partisanship but appropos of the election today. He also introduced Judge Davis for a short speech from the famous front porch.

Roosevelt at Home.

New York, Nov. 6.—Gov. Theodore Roosevelt will remain at his home at Oyster Bay, on Long Island, until after election. He wound up his campaign for the vice presidency last night with a brief speech, and then visited his old friends and neighbors.

Election Odds at New York.

New York, Nov. 6.—There was very little betting done last night on the election. The odds dropped to 3 to 1 toward the latter part of the evening and remained there.

tion in 1880 was 1,978,301 showing an increase of 214,103 or 10.8 per cent.

FIGURES AND EYES.

An Indication of Advancing Age That Admits of No Compromise.

"As we grow older," remarked the man who was doing that at the rate of a week every seven days, "we begin to observe that we seem to need more light when we read or that the print of the newspaper that we have been reading with ease for ever so many years is not quite as good as it used to be, or that we can distinguish the letters a little better if we hold them farther away than usual, but we are very slow indeed to observe that the real cause of it is that we are growing old, and we rather resent the suggestion of some kindly friend that we need glasses."

"We resent glasses especially because they are the visible sign of our weakness, and all the world may know by them what we fondly think they have not yet discovered to wit, that our eyesight is failing. I am that way myself, or was, and I stood the glasses off as long as I could, and really I could get along very well reading almost any type. Of course, I could not make out every letter, but I could get enough to complete the word, and oftentimes I could supply whole words that were indistinct by the sense of what I was reading."

"But it was the figures that got me down at last. Ah, those figures! There is no context there, and when I saw dates or numerals of any kind the blur of the years shut out all their outlines, and to save me I could not tell what was before me. I made mistakes so often in reading aloud to my wife that she would laugh at me, though she never caught me on the letters, notwithstanding many was the time I guessed at about half I was reading. But figures would not stand any fooling like that, and at last I acknowledged that it wasn't the type or the paper or the light or anything of that sort and got myself a pair of glasses. Now I can tell a figure as well as a letter, and I discover they are printed quite as plainly as ever, though I was sure they were blurred before."—New York Sun.

ROSE TO THE OCCASION.

The American Girl, as Usual, Managed to Win the Trick.

A man who is back from a visit to Paris and Germany is telling a story which ought to make the great American eagle flap his wings with pride. It happened at a little railway station in Germany. Grunewald by name, while the man who tells about it was waiting for a train on a branch line which connects with the main line at that place. Besides himself there were at the station a party of American tourists of the kind you read about in English books and an English family of the kind you read about in American books. The Americans were loud voiced and ungrammatical. They laughed a great deal and they ate peaches, the stones of which they threw at a post to test their marksmanship. They were persons for whom Uncle Sam himself would have felt apologetic, and they displayed the haughty British matrifamilias greatly. To the younger members of her family, a gawky boy and a lanky and "leggy" girl of the typical elongated English variety—they were objects of great interest, however, and the girl in particular edged nearer and nearer, to her mother's great disgust. At last she was so near that mamma could endure it no longer.

"Clara," she called in her loudest voice, "come away at once. You might be mistaken for one of those disgusting Americans!"

A pretty young American looked up and swept Clara from head to foot with a calm glance. Then she went on eating peaches.

"Don't worry, madam," she called out cheerily. "There's no danger of that—with them feet!"—Washington Post.

BATTLE OF THE BALLOTS.

The Tale Will be Told at the Ballot Box Today.

Throughout the country today the people are expressing their preferences between principles and men at the polls. At 6 o'clock this evening the polls will be closed and the count will proceed. A few hours later the anxious crowds at the bulletin boards will know the result in a general way. The official count will not be known until a few days later.

The day has been ideal for an election, the kind of a day the republicans always welcome.

In this city and so far as the REPUBLICAN has heard throughout the county, the election is passing off quietly, other than an unusual amount of challenging on the part of the democrats. They began challenging early and have kept it up throughout the day. But they have made nothing by it for every man that has a right to vote in this city and has presented himself at the polls to vote has gotten his ballot in the ballot box.

It is evident as we go to press that a heavy vote will be polled. At some of the precincts in Jackson township over 200 votes had been polled at 3 o'clock. Both parties have been working hard to get out their vote and they are succeeding quite well.

The REPUBLICAN will give as complete returns in tomorrow's issue as is possible to obtain by that time.

At 3 o'clock the following number of votes had been polled in the various precincts in the township.

Indiana's Corn Crop Largest Ever Known.

Chief Statistician Conner has just finished tabulating the returns on wheat, corn and oats for 1900. He says the yield of wheat is the lowest known in forty years. There were 2,674,918 acres of wheat sown and only 974,034 harvested. The total yield in this state is but 7,840,947 bushels. Over twenty counties harvested no wheat at all, though the usual acreage was sown. The largest production of wheat was in the extreme north-eastern and southwestern parts of the state. About 42,000,000 bushels is the average crop in the state.

The yield of corn this year is far the largest ever before known. There were 4,905,666 acres planted. The average production of corn in the state is about 125,000,000 bushels. This year the yield is 169,925,921 bushels. The largest former yield of corn was in 1898, when there were 151,000,000 bushels.

The oats crop of this year also exceeds that of any year in the history of the state. The average production of oats is about 31,000,000 bushels. This year the yield is 51,102,322 bushels. The acreage this year of oats was 1,485,604.

Shooting at Scottsburg.

A special from Scottsburg says that William Green Smith was shot in the left breast at 8 o'clock last night by Jacob Dizarn. The two were disputing over an election bet in W. A. Smith's saloon. One suggested that they go out and settle it. They left the room and passed but a word when Dizarn drew a 22-caliber revolver and fired. The ball struck a rib and being such close range produced but a flesh wound. Dizarn was arrested. Reports today indicate that Smith is in a dangerous condition and may die.

WASPS ACT IN A TRAGEDY.

But They Come Very Near Turning It Into a Comedy.

"One of the most laughable scenes I ever witnessed during the representation of one of Shakespeare's tragedies," said a well known theatrical manager to the writer the other day, "happened to the late Tom Keene when he was performing in a northern New York town. The company was playing 'Julius Caesar,' and at the last moment it was found that the property man had failed to send up the regular throne chair used in the senate scene, and an old rustic chair was hastily procured from the left of the theater and, after being covered with drapery, was pressed into service. In the midst of the scene a large wasp's nest was discovered attached to the chair, and its inhabitants, becoming indignant at the disturbance they had suffered, began to swarm about the stage, seeking revenge upon the Romans in their low necked and short sleeved dresses. The wasps seemed to be particularly offended with Caesar, and it is doubtful if Caesar's death scene was ever acted with more feeling, for at the moment he was being pierced by the conspirators' daggers the wasps were most industrious in their work."

"In the tent scene where Caesar appears to Brutus one might almost have doubted its being the real Caesar. It was the same in form and dress, but the face was no longer the same. In the last act Brutus had one eye closed, Antony a swollen lip, Cassius an enlarged chin, Lucius an inequality in the size of his hands and Octavius Caesar a nose that would have done service as the famous nasal organ of Bardolf in 'Henry IV.'"

"The tragedy came very near becoming a roaring comedy when Mr. Keene, as Cassius, said, 'Antony, the posture of your blows is yet unknown but for your words; they rob the Hybla bees and leave them homeless,' and the actor who was doing Antony replied, 'Not stingless too.'"—Washington Star.

ELECTION DAY.

How It Came to Be Tuesday After First Monday in November.

The designation of the day for holding the presidential election is left to congress. The first act passed by it relating to that subject was in 1792. It provided that presidential elections should be appointed "within 34 days before the first Wednesday in December." This left each state free to select a day to suit itself within those limits. Pennsylvania chose election on the last Friday in October. Other states elected theirs on different days between the beginning and middle of November.

When Harrison was elected in 1840, the democrats asserted that his success was due partly to fraudulent voting, which was made possible by the lack of a definite election day. It was alleged that Kentucky and Ohio Whigs had voted in both states, the election being held on different days. So in 1845 the democrats passed the law now on the statute books making the first Tuesday after the first Monday election day.

At that time but five of the 26 states had their elections in November. In Michigan and Mississippi voting was carried on through two days—the first Monday and the following Tuesday. New York had three election days—the first Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—but had finally confined voting to the middle day, or the first Tuesday after the first Monday. Massachusetts chose state officers on the second Monday in November and Delaware on the second Tuesday. So congress selected the first Tuesday after the first Monday to consult the convenience of three states out of five, one of the three being the important state of New York.—Chicago Tribune.

Following Up His Customer.

A French commercial traveler was expecting a large order from a country tradesman, but had the misfortune to arrive in the town on a fete day. Finding the shop closed, he inquired as to the whereabouts of the proprietor and ascertaining that he was attending the fete, about a mile out of town, set out after him. When he arrived there, a balloon was on the point of ascending, and he saw his man stepping into the car. Plucking up courage he stepped forward, paid his money and was allowed to take his seat with the other aeronauts. Away went the balloon, and it was not until the little party was well above the tree tops that the "commercial" turned toward his customer with the first remark of "And now, sir, what can I do for you in calicoes?"

The Bedroom.

The simplest and most economical plans for purifying the air in bedrooms are as follows: Heat an iron shovel, then pour on it a few drops of vinegar. If possible, have windows and doors open at the time. Again, have some lumps of camphor in an old saucer, heat the poker till very hot (but not red) and touch the camphor with it. The smoke that arises will take away all disagreeable odors and leave no oppressive scent behind.—London Answers.

Gentlemen:—I must say in regard to Grain-O that there is nothing better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. He was taken sick and the doctor said coffee was the cause of it, and told us to use GRAIN-O. We got a package but did not like it at first, but now would not be without it. My brother has been well ever since we started to use it. You truly, LILLIE SOCHOR.

SEYMOUR 6,445

And Jackson County Given 26,633
By the Census.

In the article published on the first page of the REPUBLICAN this evening, Seymour is accorded a population of 6,445 and Jackson county 26,633. Ten years ago Seymour had 5,337 and the county 24,046. This gives Seymour an increase of 1,108 and the county 2,587, making nearly half the increase of the county in the city of Seymour. The percentage of increase in Seymour has been nearly 21 per cent. during the years; in the county outside of Seymour it has been nearly 8 per cent. while the rate for the whole county, including Seymour, has been nearly 11 per cent. In the entire state the present population is now given as 2,516,462 against 2,192,404 in 1890 an increase of 14.7 per cent. While the census does not give either the city or county as large a number as most anticipated, yet Seymour has reason for pride in the fact that her rate of growth has been considerably higher than that of the entire state. Seymour is one of thirty-seven cities whose population is between 5,000 and 25,000. The population of these cities and of each county in the state will be found on our first page tonight.

Put In All You Can.

Charles Austin Bates, a well known advertising agent, who has formed a company to advertise and sell a proprietary medicine, mentions seven millionaires who have made $10,000,000 or more each, and who have admitted to him that but for the advertising of their articles in the newspapers they would never have succeeded. Speaking from their own experience, they say that a business man should not neglect newspaper advertising. "He should put into newspaper 'ads' $100 a year if he hasn't $1,000 to put in," said one. "He should use every dollar he can get for advertising," said another.

The general passenger agents of several railroads are said to have begun a campaign against the so-called popular excursion rate. In all the years that these reduced tariffs have been granted to the public, these railroad officials declare that they have not shown a profit sufficient to warrant their being kept in effect, and they believe that the abolishment of such rate would result in stimulation of regular passenger traffic.

Glorious News.

This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores.
